MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Administration)

SUBJECT: Relocation of Passenger Movement Branch

REFERENCE: Memo to C/LO from AD/P, dated 22 Dec 54, same subject (attached)

25X1A9A

I only concurred in the move after my people met with [] and full and complete agreement was reached that it would not require additional reports, space, or personnel in either office or lessen the service to the traveller. Also, it was understood that this was not the beginning of a move to open the door to a discussion on dispersing the Central Processing functions again.

Harrison G. Reynolds
Assistant Director for Personnel

w/note from DD/A: "Personally I still think it is a mistake to separate these functions. However, since they appear to be separated already I suppose a little greater separation won't hurt."
